Note: consider writing out your personal prayer requests and what you hear back from God. Having a written vision statement and set of goals can be helpful in having a successful and fulfilling year.

Day 1

God's Vision for My Life

"Then the Lord answered me and said: "Write the vision, and make it plain on tablets, that he may run who reads it. 3 For the vision is yet for an appointed time; But at the end it will speak, and it will not lie. Though it tarries, wait for it; Because it will surely come, It will not tarry." HABAKKUK 2 (NKJV)

Prayer & Declaration

Lord, I pray for vision for my life. I pray that you would speak to me personally, so that my vision would align with yours. I pray that you would reveal and confirm the plans you have for me. I thank you that you want to speak to me and I commit to walking out your vision for my life.

All these things belong to God, and are blessed by God, in Jesus' name. Amen.

Day 2

I Need the Holy Spirit

"And that's just the beginning: After that — "I will pour out my Spirit on every kind of people: Your sons will prophesy, also your daughters. And falling to the ground he heard a voice saying to him, "Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting me?" And he said, "Who are you, Lord?" And he said, "I am Jesus, whom you are persecuting. But rise and enter the city, and you will be told what you are to do." ACTS 9:3-6

"So we're not giving up. How could we! Even though on the outside it often looks like things are falling apart on us, on the inside, where God is making new life, not a day goes by without his unfolding grace. These hard times are small potatoes compared to the coming good times, the lavish celebration prepared for us. There's far more here than meets the eye. The things we see now are here today, gone tomorrow. But the things we can't see now will last forever." 2 CORINTHIANS 4:16-18 (MSG) cherished unity. Don't allow self-promotion to hide in your hearts, but in authentic humility put others first and view others as more important than yourselves. PHILIPPIANS 2:2-3 (TPT)

The disciples bickered over which one of them would be considered the greatest in the kingdom. 25 Jesus interrupted their argument, saying, "The kings and men of authority in this world rule oppressively over their subjects, claiming that they do it for the good of the people. They are obsessed with how others see them. 26 But this is not your calling. You will lead by a different model. The greatest one among you will live as one called to serve others without honor. The greatest honor and authority is reserved for the one who has a servant heart. 27 The leaders who are served are the most important in your eyes, but in the kingdom, it is the servants who lead. I pray that the vision, plans and goals of 2020 would align with your thoughts and desires for me personally, and for us as a church, corporately. I pray that my future and hope would be in you and abundantly clear for this year.

God, I thank you that your vision for my life, my family, my leaders, my church and this world is for this appointed time. I declare this is the favorable year of the Lord, a year of breakthrough, a year of direction, a year of provision. It's a year for me to reaffirm everything in this world, and in my life, ultimately belongs to you!

According to Hebrews 2:10 (CEV), "Everything belongs to God..." so today I surrender my worship, my job, my marriage, my singleness, my children, my finances, my creativity, my strengths, my weakness, my hurts, even my failures, cares and problems; everything in my life is in God's hands. All these things belong to God, and are blessed by God, in Jesus' name. Amen.
